Ursuline Senior Services Joins PSO's Community Partners Concert Benefit

The Pittsburgh Symphony Orchestra (PSO) teams with legendary singer Chaka Khan and 50 area nonprofits for the Sixth Annual Community Partners concert. The event, hosted by Honorary Chairman Lynn Swann, takes place on Thursday, June 25 at 8:00 p.m. in Heinz Hall. The PSO's Community Partners Program is a collaboration with 50 Pittsburgh area nonprofit organizations. In 2009, the Community Partners Program celebrates its sixth year of this innovative approach to fund-raising and community partnership: ALL proceeds from designated ticket sales to this annual performance are donated back to the Partner organizations by the PSO.

PSO Resident Conductor Lawrence Loh leads the Orchestra in the first half of the concert featuring cellist Tony Rymer, 2009 Sphinx Competition Winner. Don't miss this chance to hear the PSO, Sphinx Competition winner cellist Tony Rymer, and Chaka Khan (see save the date information other side) performing her Grammy-winning R&B hits with the PSO.

Ticket prices range from $21.50 to $112.50 – the high end ticket price includes a post-concert reception. Designated ticket proceeds from this event will benefit the participating nonprofit Partner of your choice. Please consider supporting - Ursuline Senior Services by purchasing tickets for this event. Make sure that you use CP code, 11798 when you make your ticket purchase.
